

MONDAY, JUNE 24-26

FLORAL EXHIBITS

Enter Exhibits: Monday June 24, 9 AM – Noon.

Pick-up: Wednesday June 26, 9 AM – Noon

The Little Garden Club of Woodford County is hosting the Fair Flower Show.

Chairpersons: Martha Thompson (859) 806 -6334 and Jackie Prewitt (571) 212 - 7105

Exhibit Location: Woodford County Agriculture Resource Building
(180 Beasley Road Versailles KY)

View exhibits Monday 4-8 PM & Tuesday 10 AM – 4 PM

General Rules:

1. Entries are open to anyone. Specimens in the Horticulture Division must be grown by the exhibitor for at least 30 days and labeled as to variety. Materials in the Arrangement Division must be grown in a local garden.
2. No dried or artificial flowers are to be entered unless specified.
3. Container grown plant must have been in the possession of the exhibitor at least 3 months.
4. One entry per individual shall be accepted in each class in the Youth and Arrangement Divisions. More than one entry per class shall be accepted in the Horticulture Division but must be of different varieties.
5. Classes may be subdivided by cultivar, type, and/or color when necessary.
6. Entries shall be judged on merit and the decision of the judges shall be final. Only required personnel will remain in the show area during judging.

Awards:

1. If merited, one blue, one red, and one white ribbon shall be awarded in each class.
2. One Best in Show winner shall be selected in each Division except the Youth Division.
3. Sweepstakes winners shall be selected in each Division except the Youth Division and will be determined by the greatest number of blues and if tied, greatest number of reds, and subsequently, greatest number of whites if still tied.

Sponsored by:

Ashview Farm
Versailles KY

DUNLAP
LAW FIRM

Winning Cases for over 35 Years

Serving Central Kentucky
including Woodford County

CONTACT US

859-214-4326

DUNLAPLAW.ORG

MONDAY, JUNE 24-26

FLORAL EXHIBITS

Premiums:

Horticulture Divisions: Blue $6, Red $4, White $2 Best in Show and Sweepstakes – Ribbons

Arrangement Divisions: Blue $8, Red $5, White $3 Best in Show and Sweepstakes – Ribbons

Youth Divisions: Blue $5, Red $3, White $2

Horticulture

Each class is one specimen (individual stem, leaf, bloom, or spray) unless otherwise noted. A collection is one stem each of three different varieties in separate bottles. Specimens should be in peak condition and displayed in clear bottles strong enough to support the stem.

1. Annual grown from seed
2. Annual not listed
3. Astilbe
4. Clematis
5. Coreopsis
6. Daisy
7. Dianthus
8. Echinacea (coneflower)
9. Ferns, one collection
10. Flower from bulb, other
11. Flowering shrub or tree, other
12. Gladiolus
13. Hemerocallis (daylily), one collection
14. Hemerocallis (daylily), single
15. Hemerocallis (daylily), double
16. Hemerocallis (daylily), spider
17. Hollyhock
18. Hosta, large (more than 6" across)
19. Hosta, medium (between 3-6" across)
20. Hosta, small (less than 3" across)
21. House plant, orchid, one container
22. House plant, foliage house plant
23. House plant, in bloom
24. Hydrangea, oakleaf
25. Hydrangea, other
26. Iris
27. Lily
28. Marigold
29. Milkweed in bloom
30. Outdoor container of flowering annuals and/or perennials
31. Perennial not listed
32. Perennial grown from seed
33. Petunia
34. Rose, any cultivar
35. Rose, miniature spray
36. Succulent planter, contains more than one succulent
37. Terrarium
38. Veronica
39. Yarrow, other than yellow
40. Yarrow, yellow
41. Zinnia

Arrangements

42. Miniature flower arrangement, not to exceed 8" in any direction
43. Flower arrangement in unusual container
44. Monochromatic flower arrangement
45. Flower arrangement using only herbs
46. Flower arrangement made in a kitchen item
47. Flower arrangement incorporating illumination (accessories allowed)
48. Flower arrangement in a container to hang on the wall
49. Flower arrangement, open

Dede McGehee (left) 2023 Best of Show Arrangement Division and Sweepstakes winner
Laurel Kratt (right) 2023 Best of Show Horticulture Division

This 2-minute video provides instruction on how to properly prepare your horticulture exhibits for the flower show.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DmTXm567P8U>

MONDAY, JUNE 24-26

FLORAL EXHIBITS - YOUTH

Youth

AGES 5-7

50. Arrangement representing a favorite book. Props allowed.
51. Arrangement in a container which is usually thrown away. Identify container with your entry. Container may be decorated.

AGES 8-12

52. Arrangement representing a favorite sport. Props allowed.
53. Arrangement in a container which is usually thrown away. Identify container with your entry. Container may be decorated.

AGES 13-18

54. Arrangement in a container which is usually thrown away. Identify container with your entry. Container may be decorated.
55. Arrangement in two containers which is connected by natural material - also known as a "stretch arrangement".
56. Arranger's Preference: Flowers arranged as you please! Props allowed.

Children's Flower Arranging Workshop

Date: Sunday June 23, 2024

1:00-3:00 pm

Location: Woodford County Agriculture Resource Building
Lower level
180 Beasley Drive, Versailles, KY

Learn how to arrange flowers with the advice and expertise of the Little Garden Club of Woodford County. The workshop is open to all youth between the ages of 5-18. While flowers and greenery are provided, as well as some containers, we encourage you to bring your ideas to make this arrangement your own. You may bring a container of your choice that works with the fair entry classes, and you can even bring a special flower that you want to use.

Flower arrangements will be entered in the Woodford County Fair Flower Show where they will be judged, awarded ribbons and be eligible for cash premiums. Details of the Flower Show are listed above under Floral Exhibits.

Preregistration is required no later than June 16, 2024. To pre-register contact Pat Haight at 859-396-7898 or pathaight@hotmail.com. Class size is limited to 22.